Dear Friends:

A Letter From Our Leadership

Iantha Sidell
Board Chair

It's remarkable what a community can do. Together. With our mission to ensure Jewish survival and enhance the quality of Jewish life, we provide help to thousands in need each year, and we are the lifeline for the hungry, the homeless, the displaced and the lonely. Together, we are a call to action, mobilizing our resources to make a difference. Together, we are the network that connects people to people. Together, we are a vital link to Israel, our tradition, our past and our future. Together, we are Federation.

In a year marked by economic uncertainty and continuing global instability, the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle demonstrated our community's exceptional organizational strength, resources and impact.

Barry M. Goren
President & CEO

Together, our total philanthropic achievement, of almost $12 million touched thousands of lives, here at home, in Israel and in Jewish communities around the world. Together, on four separate missions, we sent almost 100 Seattleites to Israel, plus many more students and young adults received scholarships to study in Israel, go on birthright Israel, or attend Alexander Muss High School in Israel. Together, we continue to maximize our resources, to enhance our educational network, to expand vital social services, and initiate new programs in our community.

Reviewing the past year of achievement in this report, we recognize and applaud those individuals who have given from the heart for the betterment of our community's future, those who have raised their hands for countless tasks and generous acts of volunteerism, those who have voted with their feet to participate in our Missions, events and programs, and those who have demonstrated the vision and courage to lead.

Year in, year out, we give ourselves the challenge of reaching higher, giving more, learning more, expecting more of ourselves, and by extension, demanding more of our organizations. Together, we must choose our priorities. Together, we can hold onto what is important to us. Together, we stand with Israel. Together, we can make a difference. Together, we can live generously and do a world of good.

Greatest Needs Fund

In North America, the annual Federation Community Campaigns are the most accomplished, most respected fundraising vehicles in the world. Every year, the $850+ million national campaign literally turns the lights on for the world's 13 million Jews, providing the basic infrastructure for members of our community to get help and to give it. The Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle is proud that our local community gave more than $6 million to our Greatest Needs Fund, the centerpiece of our local annual Community Campaign.

Seattle's Greatest Needs Fund is part of a continent-wide success story that represents hundreds of thousands of philanthropists and millions of dollars that bring dignity, integrity and improved quality of life to the elderly, the disabled and other vulnerable Jews and non-Jews wherever they live, whatever they need.

Each gift represents the commitment of our entire community to secure the future of the Jewish people through leadership, advocacy and education by engaging young families, providing a deeper connection to Israel and creating a visionary alliance between young and old.

Each gift to the Greatest Needs Fund means more than 40 Jewish organizations and projects—such as Jewish Family Service, the Caroline Kline Galland Center and the Stroum Jewish Community Center—can devote more time, energy and funds towards what they do best—providing valuable services to our community—and less time, energy and resources to raising much-needed funds.

Annual Community Campaign

'05

In this record-breaking year, we raised $8.6 million. We also worked hard to better understand the philanthropic goals of our generous donors and work in closer partnership with agencies to address real community needs.

Robin Boehler
2005 and 2006
Community
Campaign Chair,
Board Chair Elect

Of the $8.6 million raised in this year's annual Community Campaign, $6.2 million was raised for our Greatest Needs Fund and was allocated among four pillars—Human Need, Jewish Education, Jewish Identity and Community Building, and World Jewry—comprising more than 33 local, national and international beneficiaries, including those that have no other means of support.

The remaining $2.4 million raised was designated by donors to specific agencies and special projects. For example, Seattle-area Jews responded with compassion for the victims of the tsunami disaster in Southeast Asia, raising more than $100,000 to help those in need.

Examples of allocations to the four pillars:

- 1. Human Need: Jewish Family Service received an additional $10,000 to implement its Senior Services strategic plan.
- 2. Jewish Education: Hillel at the UW received an increase of more than $8,000 for its programming for 21-30-year-olds at its new campus facility.
- 3. Jewish Identity and Community Building: The Stroum Jewish Community Center was allocated a second year of additional funding in the amount of $15,000 to support its North Seattle operations.
- 4. World Jewry: The Khabarovsk Chesed Center in Eastern Siberia received new funding of more than $21,000—on top of the Federation's continued allocation of $28,500—to feed the hungry in the former Soviet Union.

Planned Giving and Endowments

Michele Rosen
Co-Chair,
Development Committee

Lucy Pruzan
Co-Chair,
Development Committee

Endowments and other planned gifts are a vital and growing Federation asset that provide a solid foundation for the Greatest Needs Fund as well as favorite causes.

Be there for generations to come. A planned gift to the Federation enables you to be there forever. Your gift will ensure your annual Community Campaign gift in perpetuity—no matter where or when in the future, you can be there to help.

You don't have to be wealthy. It just requires planning. Even with a small initial gift, you can create a permanent legacy using a planned gift program specifically tailored to support your financial and estate planning goals, and to fit within your means.

We are also working with other Jewish organizations to help them build their own legacy programs for their committed and generous supporters, furthering our commitment to providing service to all in the Jewish community and for every charitable organization people are interested in supporting.

To receive our quarterly planned giving newsletter, Dor L'Dor, please call our offices at (206) 443-5400.

Israel and Overseas

Israel

Israeli-born Dan Gared, now a Kiryat Malachi high school senior, is the youngest member of an Ethiopian family that emigrated to Israel in the 80's. For the past two years, Dan has been an active member of the Kiryat Malachi youth council, helping to clean the city, bringing the Jewish holidays to the disabled and learning leadership skills. This summer Dan was a counselor at the Stroum JCC. Our partnership with Kiryat Malachi and the Hof Ashkelon region of Israel means teens like Dan have the chance to be role models for younger generations, teach U.S. youngsters about Israel and grow up to be true leaders for Israel. Our funds from the annual Community Campaign make all this happen; you too can be a part of ensuring that Israel's future leadership gets the education and training it needs to fulfill its dreams.

Dan Gared

Former Soviet Union

Polina, 78, lives alone in a dreary, Stalin-era apartment in Khabarovsk. Isolated and childless, she carries herself with dignity, hiding the shame of years of deprivation. Evacuated with her family from their Ukraine home when she was 15, at the outbreak of World War II, she made bombs in a factory in Khabarovsk while her father worked in an armaments center. After the war, she became a teacher. After 50 years of dedicated service, Polina has retired, but her pension isn't enough to feed her. Your gift ensures older adults like Polina are able to live their lives with dignity and a connection to the Jewish community by providing monthly food baskets, friendly visitors and medical assistance to Russia's neediest Jewish elderly.

Jewish Education Council

Tina Novick
Jewish Education
Council Chair

The Community High School of Jewish Studies

“Hebrew High” offered three trimesters of classes at the Stroum Jewish Community Center. 190 students learned about Judaism through text study, art, film, history and more. 22 students took a 10-day trip to Israel that focused on community service.

Jewish Education Services This year eight teachers earned Jewish teaching certificates through the JEC’s Midrasha (teacher training) program. The JEC sponsored three major community-wide teacher learning events—two Back-to-School Specials, and ‘Heart of the Matter. Debbie Friedman’s concert, attended by 1,000 at Temple de Hirsch Sinai, honored Carol Starin’s retirement after 14 years as director of the JEC. We nominated Seattle’s first two Grinspoon-Steinhardt Award winners—Beth Fine and Sharon Morrison.

Limmud NW 2005 marked the first year-round cycle of Limmud, with the expansion of our summer program. Offerings included special classes that bridged the moral values divide, and a first-time writing class encouraged students to write their “Jewish Journey.”

Israel Program Support 345 participants are enrolled in Milk & Honey, a matching savings program for trips to Israel. In addition since 2000, more than 150 students have redeemed their $500 Community Investment Portfolios, with 61 redeemed this year. Funds apply toward educational Israel trips.

Camp Scholarships We awarded nearly $50,000 in camp scholarships (including $2,800 from the Stan Rosen Teen Campership Fund), enabling Jewish community campers to attend Jewish overnight camps throughout the country.

Study Buddy This tutoring program of the Federation and B’nai B’rith Evergreen Region has more than 150 active tutors in Seattle-area public schools. Study Buddy’s ‘Laughter and Literacy’ event brought in more than 1,000 books for Seattle schools in need.

Toward a Learning Community

...enhancing the quality and quantity of Jewish education, formal and informal, for learners at all levels

The JEC sponsors and supports the Jewish Early Childhood Directors Association and the Jewish Education Directors Association.

Young Leadership Division

For the Young Leadership Division of the Federation—led by a new board of directors and a new YLD Director, Aaron Schwamberg—2005 was a year of change and growth.

Becki Chandler
Young Leadership
Division Chair

This year, a re-evaluation of YLD's mission and programming culminated in a broad email-based survey and two focus groups, results of which will be used to grow the YLD presence and strengthen its role in the community. While that strategic work was underway, YLD gathered in multiple ways at a variety of venues to network and socialize, raise funds for the community, and continue developing tomorrow's community leaders.

Highlights of YLD's 2005 activities include:

- Two highly successful community-building events—600 young adults aged 25-45 years attended LatkePalooza in December, and 300 attended SchmoozaPalooza in July at Safeco Field;
- A 2004 pre-election educational event to better understand Jewish issues political and concerns;
- A special thank-you event for Ben Gurion Society members (YLD'ers who give $1,000 or more to the annual Community Campaign) with the founder of He'Brew, "The Chosen Beer"; and
- A re-vamped Main Event fundraiser, featuring a silent auction, casino games and prizes, all in a casual atmosphere.

A YLD Profile: Brian Schultz

- Age 30, single, born in New York, grew up in Atlanta, has lived in Seattle for 6 years
- Profession: Entrepreneur
- Community: YLD board member for three years; Ben Gurion Society; member of Blue Knot, the Jewish Tech Initiative
- "I participated in YLD events when I first moved to Seattle as a way to meet people. I now serve on the board because I want to give back—I want YLD to be there for the next person like me who's looking for a way to connect with others in the community."

Brian Schultz
YLD Board Member

Women's Philanthropy

Alise Tarica
2006 Women's
Division Chair

Patty Lazarus
2005 Women's
Division Chair

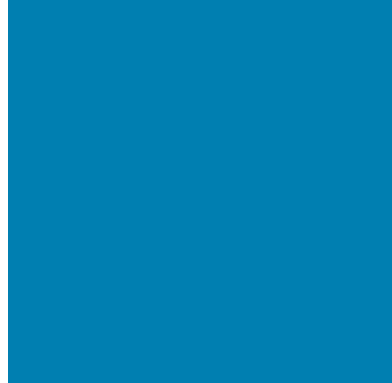

The Women's Division, a dynamic part of our organization, enjoyed another successful year, including raising one-third of the Community Campaign funds from approximately 1,200 donors.

From Connections, our main fundraising event, and our annual meeting to specialized groups such as the Business & Professional Women's Division and Lion of Judah, Women's Division can celebrate wonderful accomplishments, both financial and in terms of community building and outreach.

Chair Patty Lazarus led a motivated, committed and energetic team of women including Tina Novick, Past Chair; Alise Tarica, Campaign Chair; Susie Eastern, Campaign Vice-Chair; Shelley Bensussen, Lion of Judah Division Chair; Barbara Sulman and Leslie Rosen, International Lion of Judah Conference Recruitment Co-chairs; Julie Ellenhorn and Lisa Brashem, Connections Co-chairs; Naomi Newman, Leadership Development Chair; Tami Rogers, Women's Division Annual Meeting Chair; Amy Agoado, B&P Chair, and Amy Adler, B&P Campaign Chair.

Highlights of the year include:

- Lion of Judah: 13 women became new Lions this year. Margaret Larson made a moving presentation at the Lion Lunch held at the new Hillel building. In addition, for the first time Lion parlor parties were held with 100 percent of attendees committing to the Lion of Judah giving level ($5,000).
- Connections: Academy-Award-winning actress Marlee Matlin—a Jewish woman, mother, wife, actress and supporter of United Jewish Communities and helping Jews in need—entertained and inspired a diverse group of 440 women in attendance, both long-time and new donors.
- Business & Professional Women: With presentations ranging from women as small-business owners and entrepreneurs to the role of women in the media, including speakers such as KUOW's Marcie Sillman, this group successfully reached out to professional women in our community.
- Women's Division Annual Meeting: We honored Alice Siegal with the 2004 Sara Kaplan Award for Outstanding Community Service at a high tea at the Fairmont Olympic Hotel.

Building Community

Bashert, the LGBT Initiative, is designed to further the mission of the Federation by reaching out to lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender Jews in Greater Seattle in order to build a stronger, more inclusive Jewish community. This initiative creates opportunities for Jews to come together, celebrate and explore their Jewish identities in a welcoming environment. Bashert was launched in April 2005 with a panel discussion, “Contracts and Covenants: Religious and Legal Perspectives.”

birthright israel provides the gift of a free first-time, peer-group, educational trip to Israel for Jewish young adults ages 18 to 26 who have never before been to Israel. More than 32,000 young adults from all over the world have been to Israel on a birthright israel trip. This year, more than 200 young adults from or living in Seattle took part.

Blue Knot Technology Initiative was launched in September 2004 and hosted six outreach and education events for more than 200 Jewish technology professionals in the greater Seattle area.

Cardozo Society is an honor society for Jewish attorneys who make a minimum gift of $1,500 to the annual Community Campaign. The Society sponsors programs that integrate legal and Jewish concerns to demonstrate the unique contributions the legal profession can make to improve the Jewish community.

Israel Solidarity Walk The second annual Walk, held this year at Gas Works Park, brought together hundreds of people who braved the gray skies and marched in support of Israel. People from throughout Seattle’s Jewish community gathered, and together relayed one clear and important message: We stand with Israel.

Maimonides Society is an honor society for Jewish physicians and dentists who make a minimum gift of $1,500 to the annual Community Campaign. The Society also sponsors programs which integrate medical and Jewish concerns to demonstrate the unique contributions the medical profession can make to improve the Jewish community.

Professional Advisory Roundtable This year, the Federation hosted six educational events for planned giving professionals, including our first ever collaborative event with The Seattle Foundation.

Scott Michelson
JTNews Chair

JTNews is now in its 82nd year of providing news to the Jewish community throughout Washington State. 2005 was a very successful year for the JTNews. This year, the paper won the Simon Rockower Award for Overall Newspaper Graphic Design, published its first annual Northwest Jewish Family publication and published its annual Guide to Jewish Washington.

You can subscribe to the JTNews or renew your subscription online at www.JTNews.net. The JTNews offers special subscription rates to students and readers on fixed incomes. Please call our subscriptions manager at (206) 441-4553 for more information.

Israel Advocacy and Government Affairs

Howard Sibelman
External Affairs Chair

The Government Affairs Committee is chaired by Sari Schneider.

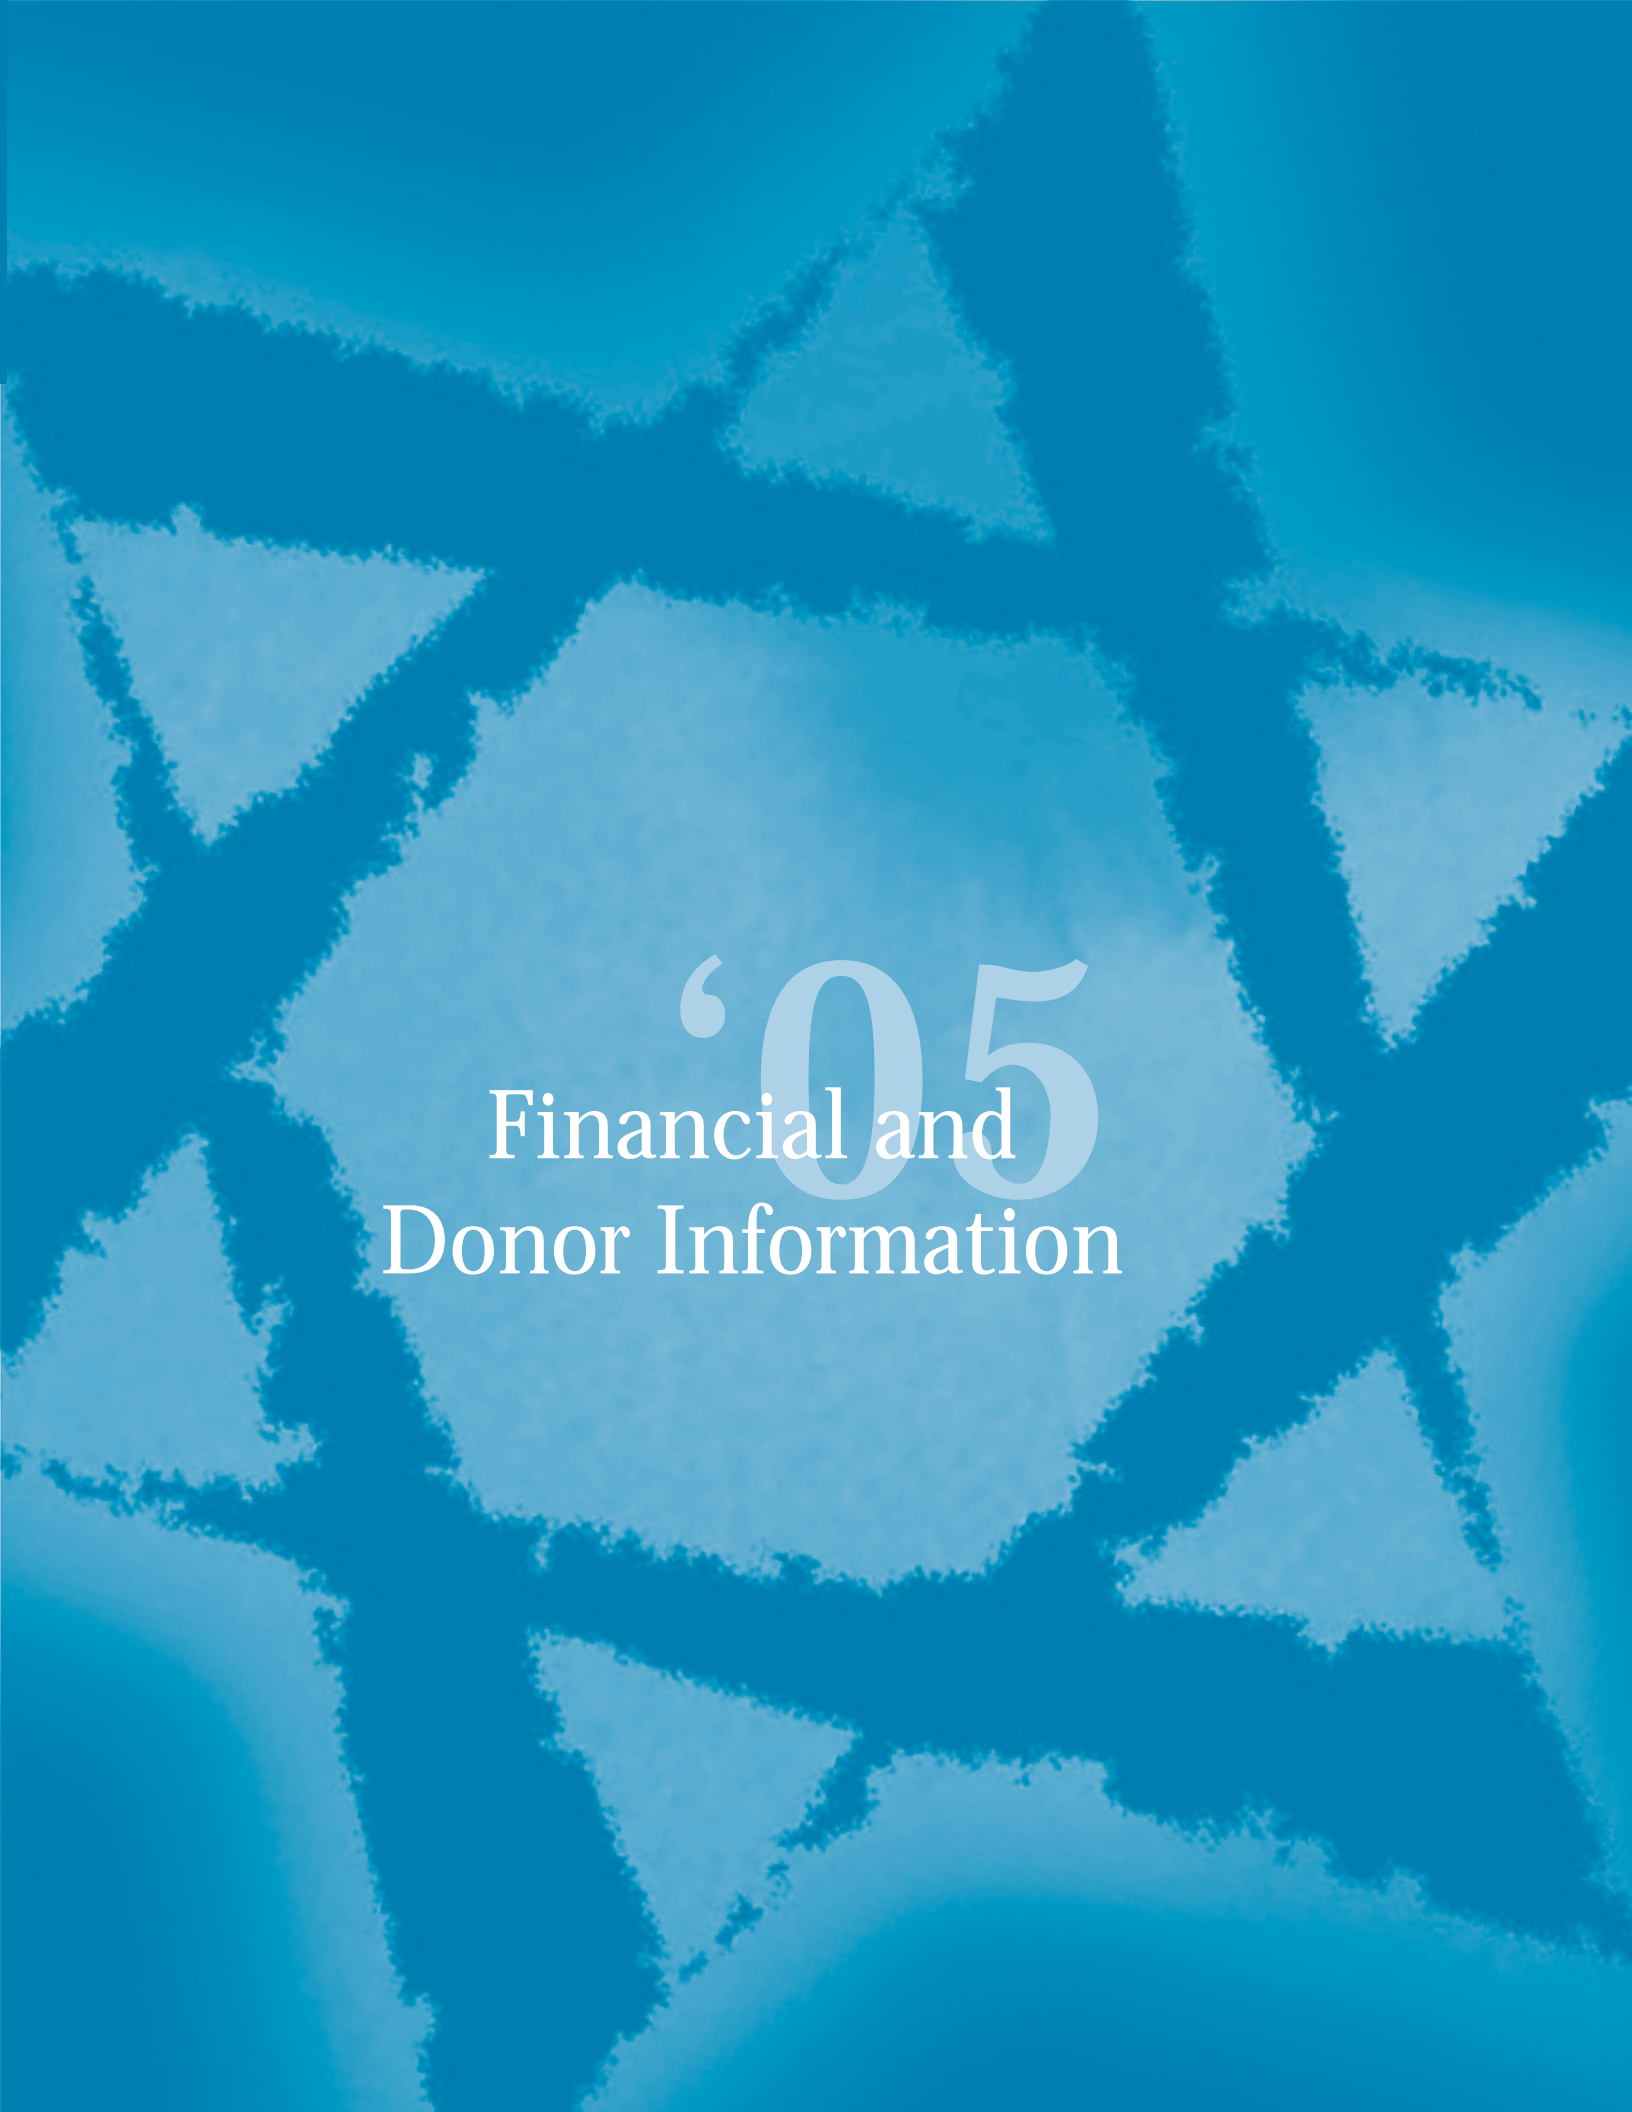

The Israel Advocacy and Government Affairs Committees, under the purview of the External Affairs Department, both had a very successful year, with a number of Israel-focused events designed to increase exposure to and information about Israel to our community, and tireless work to protect the partnership among government, our beneficiary agencies and their clients.

Israel Advocacy Authors David Olesker and Hirsch Goodman shared their perspectives on the disengagement from Gaza, and Consul General David Akov brought the community up to date on Israel in general. Government Affairs An Aging Issues Forum was held at the Stroum JCC in September 2004, where more than 100 older adults learned about the legislative issues affecting them and heard from the then-gubernatorial-candidates on potential solutions. Our work with the 2005 state legislative session was extremely successful. We secured funding for our key agencies and helped pass important human-rights legislation. By advocating for our beneficiary agencies, we ensure important state and federal funding is continued or increased and push for human-rights issues that benefit us all. This work also helps protect the millions of state and federal dollars that flow to our agencies each year. Homeland Security funds became available through the state for our communal institutions and we've been notified that we've won a grant of $100,000 for four of our agencies.

2005 Federation Government-Advocacy Wins

- $1.5 million in additional funding for English as a Second Language and employment programs for contracting agencies such as JFS
- $1 million in additional funding for naturalization programs such as the one at JFS
- Elimination of the "bed tax" that was a drain on the Caroline Kline Galland Center's resources
- Passage of a new law barring life insurance companies from denying coverage to people who travel to Israel

Thank You

Thank you to the thousands of donors who contributed from $1-$249. Your gifts are essential to our Greatest Needs Fund and are deeply appreciated, however space did not allow us to print all names.

Special Thanks

A special thank you to our Golden Donors—those who have given to the Federation for over 25 years. Golden Donors are listed in bold.

“It is our connection to Judaism and its rich history that brought us together.”

“Oh, what a night! Our lives changed on March 3, 2002 at the Young Leadership Division’s Community Campaign Phone-a-thon. Raquel called Simon to make his annual pledge...and the rest is history!

Judaism plays an important role in our lives. It is our connection to Judaism and its rich history that brought us together. Our love of family, friends and the Jewish community in Seattle and around the world inspires us to support the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle.

We are proud to be a part of the Seattle Jewish community and intend to continue giving of our time and tzedakah to the Jewish Federation.

For us, the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle has become more than a fundraising and leadership organization, it’s a place to build relationships as well. Who would have thought that through a phone-a-thon phone call we would have found our bashert!”
